I Thought We'd Won

By: Paige Collins

Authors Note: I am back at poetry. I am putting Northchild back on, cause taking it off won't solve my problem and make the story go away.

Of all the battles we have fought,

I realized that this is the most tough,

Or so I thought,

Battling for the win of the earth isn't all,

There are problems we all face,

Some big, some small,

Things we think about,

But then I realize that this is the mostâ€¦important,

I was back in battle,

Some wins,

Some loss,

I raise my head,
I look at the enemy,
To see if it is dead,
I indeed it is,
Bu then upon my knowing of this I find out,
This is the last Yeerk,
Without a doubt,
I gaze at the star lit glittery night,
An sigh,
I always thought we'd win the fight,
I hear a sound,
In a blink of an eye,
I whirl around,
There, in all it's evilness,
Is a Yeerk battle ship,
I groan,
For the battle has just begun,
But realizing this,
I thought we'd won.
